Notice.

It is said that some of the colored voters have urged Congressian Cheatham not to go into the Republican cancus, and thus to pay the Republican party for the terrible simbling it has given the negro.

At the last general election T. F. Toms was a registrar of election in Logan's-Store precisel. Rutherford county. He has been arrested on a charge of refusing to allow a negro to register. He says he had reason to believe that the negro was not of legal age. The authorities at that time threatened Toms with indeterment, but he did what he believed to be his duty and was underrified. His arrangement is now the result. He will be tried day after to-mortow.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., September 24.—Han.

M. M. Sonthworth, one of the early settlers of Niagara county, killed himself in his law-office to day. He was alone in his office, and had been dead three or four hours when he was found. A paper was found, dated H140 o'clock, saying he was "doing wrong but could not stand the press." He must have been temporarily deranged. There is no knewn cause for his suicide. He was one of the carliest and most eminent anti-slavery agitators, one of the first members of the Republican party, and for many years district attorney of Niagara county.

second ballots will strengthen their posttion.

Bealin, September 24.—The Fossicke Zeitong, Tagghall, and National Grackle spreechat
the elections in France have not material by altered the strength of the parties. They say that the future of France caponds on thirty Republicans.

The National Grackle says that the chief danger to the republic has been averted.

The Vossicke Zeitong farctle says that the forecasts containing the results of the second ballots are premature. In any case, the paper says, the elections atgur a more peaceful future.

The Taggblatt says: The Republicans are disappointed at the result of the election.
They had hoped that Boulaugerism would be annihilated and that the Monarchists would be entangled in its downfall. Germans, as lovers of peace, are satisfied with the results.

The North German Gractle says: "The elections in France show a revival of the conservative republican faction, whose moderate leader, Leon Nay, will become an important factor in shaning the policy of country a strong and respected government."

Vienna, September 23.—The press of this city regards the result of Sunday's electrons in France as a great Republican success and as the defeat of Boulangerism and Radicalism. The Republicans, it says, must use unitedly on the second ballots as well as in the Chamber in order to establish a solid Government majority.

The Frendenblut says: A great crisis will be overcome if the second ballots result favorably to the Republicans.

The New Freie Press says that the danger of dictatorship or a coup detail has been diverted. The diminution of Boulangerism is the most important result of the contests.

St. Petresaum, September 24.—The Russian press is charry in its comments on the elections in France. The Novoe Vrongal says it believes the German press is premature in judging that the elections are unfavorable to a strong fereign policy on the part of France. By averting all immediate danger of an overthrow of the present regime, the paper says, France will obtain time to effect reforms under a revision of the Constitution calculated to give the country a government capable of facing external dangers.

DESIDES PEACE.

DESTRES PEACE. Rown, September 24.—The Popoli Romani says: The elections in France saved the republican institutions, but not the Cabinet. They show that France desires pence. The Capiton Francessa and Messagero say that the republic has defeated Boulangerism.

that the republic has defeated Boulangerism.

The Reforma commenting on the elections in France says the result proves that a majority of the Frenchmen desire a wise, liberal, and peaceful republic.

THE CABINET—CHAMOZE OF DEPUTES.

PARIS, September 24.—All the members of the Cabinet have returned to Paris. The ministerial council, which will be presided over by President Carnot, will be held at the Elysee to-morrow.

The new Chamber of Deputies will be summoned to meet in November. It is now estimated that the supporters of the Gevernment will comprise 300 Moderate Republicans and 65 members of the Left.

M. Herve has gone to Thichmond, England, for the purpose of conferring with the Count of Paris. MM. Lagentre and Naquet have gone to London to meet General Boulanger.

The Chamber is certain to annul the elections of Boulanger and Count Dillon. In order to secure the election of the Republican candidates wherever possible on the second ballot in districts in which two Republicans ran Sunday, the one who received the smaller number of votes will retire in favor of the one who polled the greater number.

asked the reporter of an old druggist.

"Dr. Pierce's proparations," he replied.

"They are sold under a positive guarantee that they will, in every case, give satisfaction, or the money is promptly refunded. His 'Favorite Prescription, for all those chronic weaknesses, nervous and other derangements peculiar to women, is used with unfailing success. It cures weak back, bearing-down sensations, irregularities and weaknesses common to the sex, and being the most perfect of tonic medicines builds up and strengthens the entire system. The demand for it is constant, and I am conversant with scores of cases cured by it.

Returning after a few moments' absence, the venerable wielder of the pestle remarked, "the number of sarsaparillas and other, so-called, 'blood medicines' is legion; but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery outaels them all and it is the only blood-purifier out of the many which I am obliged to keep upon my shelves, that is guaranticed to benefit or cure in all cases for which it is recommended, or money paid for it is refunded."
